Congrats to our Terrance for 10 Years at Montecatini

Since July 2007, Terrance George, has been our server and bartender. For many of our customers, Terrance is not just a server or bartender, he is a good friend too. With his high standards, work ethnics and extensive knowledge of Montecatini's menu and fine wines, we are indeed so fortunate to have Terrance be part of the Montecatini family.

Forever the professional, he sometimes can drive the kitchen staff batty from his various demands to please his customers, but we appreciate that. Recently, he just became a first-time parent with his wife Taylor, another server at Montecatini. Check out baby Parker's pictures at Montecatini's facebook page at <https://www.facebook.com/montecatinirestaurant/> Come dine with us at Montecatini, and when you see Terrance, give him a big two thumbs up for his job well done. We love you Terrance and look forward to your future years with Montecatini.

Enjoy a glass of La Crema Pinot Noir on us!

As a thank you to our loyal customers: Join us for dinner at Montecatini now until the end of July 2017, and enjoy a complimentary glass of our 2014 La Crema Pinot Noir red wine (or any non-alcoholic beverage) when you purchase one entree or pasta.

This beautiful La Crema Pinot Noir from Monterey pairs deliciously with Montecatini's award winning Fettuccine Alla Viareggina with large scallops, prawns, bay shrimp, fresh sauteed mushrooms in a tomato cream sauce. Wilfred Wong of Wine.com said, "The La Crema Monterey Pinot Noir has always been one of my favorite choices for best red wine values in the $20 to $25 range. The 2014 vintage shows a nice combination of ripe fruit and sweet oak. The wine's lively palate makes it an ideal choice with seared lamb chops. (Tasted: April 27, 2017, San Francisco, CA)"

Just show this email to your server from your mobile device or print-out. One free glass of La Crema Pinot Noir per email with entree/pasta, showing email header with individual email address. (You can come several times throughout this period and receive our free glass each time, but not more than one glass per email address per night please.)
