Within the last eight months, Montecatini Ristorante's cuisine and wines are winning some major awards locally and internationally. Walnut Creek Magazine named our Fettuccine Alla Viareggina the Best Pasta in Walnut Creek. Diablo Magazine awarded Montecatini The Best Italian Restaurant in the San Francisco East Bay. Wine Spectator Magazine bestowed their Award of Excellence upon Montecatini for having one of the "Most Outstanding Wine Lists in the World."

We are humbled by the awards and promise to keep on working hard everyday to maintain our high standards and create a joyful welcoming place for our Montecatini staff, guests, and friends. Read more about us at <http://montecatinirestaurant.com/our-story/news/>

We Installed New Carpets

Although our customers might not notice, we just put in new carpet and give our Montecatini a fresh new feel. Instead of shampooing our carpet this year, we put in brand-new one! Hardwood floors may be the trend in restaurants, but they are noisy and we decided to stay with carpet and its noise dampening quality and luxury feel. Notice in the picture the sound absorbing panels behind the curtains? Yes, to enhance our customers dining experience, we have installed acoustic panels all around the restaurant to make our dining room quieter. It can still be quite noisy when our dining room is packed, but it is much better compared to a few years ago without the sound absorbing panels.

Enjoy a glass of Italian Pink "Champagne" Rotari Brut Rose on us!

As a thank you to our loyal customers: Join us for dinner at Montecatini now until Sunday, Labor Day Weekend September 4th, 2017, and enjoy a complimentary glass of our Rotari Brut Rose Italian "Champagne" (or any non-alcoholic beverage) when you purchase one entree or pasta.

During the summer months, this Italian sparkling brut rose is refreshing and fragrant, pairs well with our Montecatini's Italian cuisine. This elegant rose is made with Pinot Noir and Chardonnay grapes from the Trentino territory in the heart of the Dolomites in Northern Italy. This wine is aged in steel and processed according to the champagne method with a maturation on the lees in bottle for at least 24 months. Enjoy a glass of this fine and elegant Rotari sparkling rose brut on us!

Just show this email to your server from your mobile device or print-out. One free glass of Rotari Brut Rose per email with entree/pasta, showing email header with individual email address. (You can come several times throughout this period and receive our free glass each time, but not more than one glass per email address per night please.)
