Showstoppers Brick Chicken and Lasagna

Diablo Magazine is currently (Feb 2018 Issue) highlighting Montecatini's Pollo Alla Schiacciata and Lasagna Casalinga as "Showstoppers" within the SF East Bay food scene. "Crispy", "Juicy" and "Unique"! Indeed these two dishes are among our customers' favorites!!! Chef Ermes prepares our Schiacciata (brick-pressed) from fresh 1/2 chicken (never pre-cooked) with fresh rosemary each time; served piping hot from the oven, it is amazingly juicy and sumptuous... but you must be patient, it takes 25-30 minutes to prepare. Our Lasagna Casalinga is truly Italian comfort food, with our unique signature tomato cream sauce, which also takes 25 minutes to prepare. They are well-worth the wait!

Enjoy Free Glass of Superb Italian Red: Renato Ratti Barbera D'Asti

On our current Wine by the Glass list is Wine Spectator 91-point rated Renato Ratti Barbera D'Asti DOCG Battaglione 2015, a ruby-red, full-flavored Italian Red. Barbera d'Asti is one of the most famous wines from the Piedmont region, from and around the town of Asti of north-western Italy. Renato Ratti Barbera D'Asti is a DOCG (the highest level of Italian wine classification) wine, well-balanced with bouquet of ripe berries, dark cherry and an undercurrent of pepper spices that complement deliciously with Montecatini's pasta and entree. If you are ever travelling to Italy, consider touring the Renato Ratti Winery in Piedmont.
