Confronting COVID-19 A Story of Recovery

COVID-19 has been invading the globe, and especially in Italy. Our Chef Ermes has his sister, aunts, uncles, cousins, nephews and nieces throughout Northern Italy where Coronavirus has hit the hardest.

Several weeks ago we heard that Cousin Andrea (pictured here with Teresa and Ermes in July 2019) was taken by ambulance from his apartment in Milan and he had tested positive for COVID-19. After three weeks in the hospital, our story has a happy ending.

Ermes and Teresa spoke to Andrea on the phone recently, and he is feeling much better and is in a 14-day quarantine in his apartment in Milan. Uncle Nino, Andrea's 89 year old father, lives with him but they cannot see each other for the moment. They speak to each other by cell phone from one room to the next. Regardless of the inconvenience, Uncle Nino is glad Andrea is finally home and healthy!

Ermes' sister Daria, who lives by herself in Vicenza (near Venice) is doing well, and like all of us in California, she is staying at home under a health mandate. Although she is half way around the world from us, we are sharing the same frustrations and successes of social distancing.

This is a difficult time for everybody as Montecatini is closed for now. We wish you and your family good health and happiness. We look forward to our reopening with 100% of our current employees. Please stay tuned and thank you for your patience.
